Fresno Man Charged with Attempted Murder In Domestic Violence-Related Shooting and Hit-And-Run

The Fresno County District Attorney's Office has filed charges against Martin Campos, Jr. (31, of Fresno) for his role in hit-and-run and attempted murder incidents that took place on May 7, 2025.

On that date, the Fresno Police Department received reports that the defendant had physically assaulted his ex-girlfriend and that he was chasing her and her 3-year-old daughter as they drove southbound on Freeway 41. Officers located the vehicles stopped at a traffic light near Jensen Avenue and Highway 99. As an officer approached, the defendant fired at least one round at the victim, prompting the officer to return fire. The defendant then fled the scene, striking two nearby vehicles before surrendering to police. He was taken into custody without further incident.
