Re: Opposition to Parole for Rudolph Martin Acosta, CDCR# H50445, Hearing date for June 6, 2025.

Dear Members of the Board of Parole Hearings,

As a member of the Fresno community, I am writing to strongly oppose the parole of Rudolph Martin Acosta. The violent nature of his crimes—including multiple kidnappings and sexual assaults—inflicted profound and irreversible trauma on the victims and sent shockwaves through our entire community. These were not isolated acts of harm; they were acts of terror that shattered lives, destroyed families, and left a lasting scar on Fresno.

The magnitude and cruelty of these crimes cannot be overstated. Survivors continue to carry the weight of their pain. Our community continues to carry the memory of those dark days. Granting parole in this case would not only disregard the severity of the harm done—it would betray the very principles of justice and public safety.

Parole decisions must be rooted in a responsibility to protect the public, honor the experiences of survivors, and uphold the integrity of our justice system. Releasing Rudolph Martin Acosta would place our community at risk and retraumatize those who have already suffered so deeply.

I/We call on the Board to stand with the survivors. To stand with our city. To stand with justice.

I/We urge you: Deny parole for Rudolph Martin Acosta. The safety of our families, our neighborhoods, and our collective peace of mind must come first.

Sincerely,
